

Public Hearing for Rock County Shoreland Zoning Ordinance revision
Jul 12, 2012

The Rock County Planning and Development Agency is in the process of revising the Rock County Shoreland Zoning Ordinance, which has jurisdiction over all shoreland areas in unincorporated portions of Rock County. The shoreland zone is defined as 1000 lineal feet from the ordinary high water mark of a lake, pond or flowage and 300 feet from any other navigable body of water. This Ordinance has been in place, with amendments, since 1983.

The public hearing will be held on July 12, 2012 at the regular meeting of the Rock County Planning and Development Committee. The draft has also been uploaded to our website, <http://www.co.rock.wi.us/departments/departments-m-z/planning> .
